No. 523.—

Departmental rules prescribed for officers under the control of the Government full wage one or the other of the following classes and with a few exceptions no fee is at present levied from persons applying for work tests:

(1) those which are required to be passed within the prescribed period of probation of an officer or which are necessary for his continuance in his post without penalty;

(2) those which are required to be passed only for promotion to higher posts.

It has been brought to the notice of Government that the non-acceptance of the results of a number of officers applying for the tests without any serious intention to appear for them or appearance for the tests with but little hope of passing them, thereby causing additional work and inconvenience to the examining bodies and unnecessary expense to Government. In order to check frivolous applications it has been suggested that a limit be placed on the number of times an officer should be permitted to apply for the tests without payment of fee. The Government have considered the suggestion and are of the opinion that in regard to tests given under class (1) above, the penalty attached to failure to pass them within the prescribed time limit is itself a sufficient deterrent against submission of frivolous applications and that no action is called for in such cases. As regards tests coming under class (2) however, the Government are convinced that unless some restriction is imposed, frivolous applications cannot be checked. They are accordingly pleased to direct that the provisions to apply without payment of fee for departmental tests below, under which officers have to retire, be now applied to officers who fail to pass the tests.

(1) for those (a) of sub-rule (b), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(a) The order of discharge laid down in clauses (1) and (2) may be departed from in cases where such order would involve excessive expenditure on travelling allowances or exceptional administrative inconvenience" and

(2) for the second proviso to sub-rule (c), the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided further that the said order may be departed from in cases where such order would involve excessive expenditure on travelling allowances or exceptional administrative inconvenience."
